The Name of Mary

Who is she that cometh forth as the morning rising, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army set in array?

Mary, our sweet loving Mother,
 Can my tongue her beauty tell?
 All the splendor of her glory,
 Raised on high with God to dwell.
 There is naught on earth to mirror
 Our great Queen so chaste and fair,
 Yet, the silent voice of nature
 Whispers sweetly everywhere
THE NAME OF MARY.

She, Judea's fairest lily,
 Purer than the mountain's snow,
 Brighter than the rays of sunshine,
 Than the diamond's lustrous glow.
 Hence I love earth's fragrant lilies,
 Emblems of her purity,
 For their rare translucent whiteness,
 Breathes so sweetly unto me
THE NAME OF MARY.

She, that modest, fragrant lily,
 Crystal chalice e'er unstained,
 To receive the Blood of Jesus,
 From eternity ordained.
 Hence, I love the hidden valleys,
 Where the whitest lilies blow,
 And their magic silent voices
 Whisper all my heart would know,
THE NAME OF MARY.

Then the "Mystic Rose" we call her,
 From the ardor of her love,
 Which delights the King of Heaven,
 And the angel hosts above.
 Hence I love to gaze in silence
 On the blushing rose so sweet,
 For its soft and crimsoned petals,
 Ever to my heart repeat
THE NAME OF MARY.

If on earth it is so soothing,
 To repeat that name in prayer,
 What will be my joyous rapture
 When my Mother's bliss I'll share
 Then near her bright throne in glory,
 All her beauty I will see,
 There to praise with angel voices
 Through a long eternity,
THE NAME OF MARY.

✠ BISHOP'S CORNER

On this Solemnity of the Holy Name of Mary, in the sweet and sacred name of the Mother of God, we open a new season at St. Gertrude the Great. May all that we say and strive for, work and worry for this year be done in Our Lady's name. What a prayer this would make out of our most common place actions, and how pleasing this prayer would be to Almighty God, when proffered in Mary's Name.

We began the new school year on Wednesday with the Votive Mass of the Holy Ghost, beautifully sung by our School Schola in the exquisite Gregorian Chant which is the Church's own music. The Mass was offered for our school benefactors, with our profound thanks. Afterwards it was a pleasure to greet teachers and students both new and old. I visited the First and Second Grade classroom in the afternoon for a little follow-up on the day's sermon, and a story which I read to the children.

Fr. Cekada is our official school chaplain this year, and had an interesting and informative presentation for the parents last week in preparation for the new school year.

Today the dedicated laity of our Sunday School, catechism in hand, begin a new series of classes for the sixty-five children enrolled in this ever so important apostolate. Mrs. Kathy Cozzens is coordinating the classes this year, and brings great enthusiasm as well as her own experience as a parent. Each one of our teachers has a great zeal for the faith and a love for these young souls. I pray to St. Pius X and Our Mother of Good Counsel to bless us with a wonderful school year.

I am grateful to good Dr. Tom Droleskey for the fine talk he has prepared for us after the 9:00 AM Mass. This will help us "set the tone" for this season as we redouble our efforts to make Christ reign as King.

Our Lord's Kingship will come about through the Immaculate Heart of Mary our Queen. Be with us Wednesday evening for our penultimate Fatima Rosary Procession, preceded as always by Holy Mass.

On Tuesday evening we conclude our Thirteen Tuesdays of St. Anthony, our traditional summer devotion. May he richly bless all of you, and help many lost souls to be found again.

The Holy Cross is honored during the day on Thursday, which might make a good "weekly home schooler's Mass" for those of you who have made that resolution. Remember the early morning Mass is Tuesday rather than Wednesday this week. And remember your Mother's Sorrows on Friday of this week and all of September. We count seven swords in her Immaculate Heart, but her sorrows are truly vast as the ocean's deep—all borne for love of Our Lord and of us.

Let us begin this new school year in Mary's Holy Name.

—Bishop Dolan

✠ ON THE SACRED NAME OF MARY

This day, Sunday within the Octave of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin, is sacred to her honor, under the title of her Sacred Name. As the Church celebrates a Feast in honor of the Adorable Name of Jesus, so likewise does she celebrate a Feast in honor of the Sacred Name of His blessed Mother Mary.

The most holy name of Mary, joined to that of Jesus, possesses a hidden power which puts to flight the demon, and fills the soul of him who utters it in loving faith, with consolation and hope. It is a certain fact that God has attached a beneficent power of sanctification and life to the devout uttering of these two names by the faithful, and this precisely because Jesus and Mary are the dearest objects of His love.

THE FAIREST FLOWER OF PARADISE
—Rev. A. M. Lepicier, O.S.M.

✠ SUNDAY AFTERNOON SPIRITUAL THOUGHTS

THE ANGELIC SALUTATION

Richard of St. Laurent lists the reasons why it is good to say a Hail Mary at the beginning of a sermon:

1. The Church Militant should follow the example of St. Gabriel who saluted Mary with great respect saying the Hail Mary, before he told her the joyous tidings: "Behold thou shalt conceive and bear a son..." Thus the church salutes the Blessed Virgin before announcing the Gospel.
2. The congregation will derive more fruit from a sermon that is prefaced by the Hail Mary; the priest who gives the sermon has the Angel's role as it were. But in order that the congregation may give birth to Christ in their souls (by faith) they must first of all obtain this grace from the Blessed Virgin who gave birth to Him the first time, and together with her they will become the Mothers of the Son of God. For without Mary they cannot produce Jesus in their souls.
3. The Gospels show us the power of the Hail Mary; people will get help from Our Lady through this prayer.
4. To say it is a great safeguard and a way of avoiding dangerous pitfalls: Mary, our Illuminatrix, gives light to preachers.
5. The members of the congregation, following Our Lady's example, listen more attentively and are more apt to remember God's words.
6. The devil (who is the enemy of the human race and of the preaching of the Gospel) is driven off by the Hail Mary. This is most necessary because, to quote Our Lord's words, there is danger of his coming to take the word of God out of people's hearts, "lest believing they might be saved." —THE SECRET OF THE ROSARY

THE HOLY NAME OF MARY

Just as the salvation of the world began with the Hail Mary, so the salvation of each individual is bound up with it. This prayer...brought to a dry and barren world the Fruit of Life, and if well said, will cause the Word of God to take root in the soul and bring forth Jesus, the Fruit of Life...the Hail Mary is a heavenly dew which waters the earth of our soul and makes it bear its fruit in due season. The soul which is not watered by this heavenly dew bears no fruit but only thorns and briars, and merits only God's condemnation...

We know from experience that those who show positive signs of being among the elect, appreciate and love the Hail Mary and are always glad to say it. The closer they are to God, the more they love this prayer... I do not know how this should be, but it is perfectly true; and I know no surer way of discovering whether a person belongs to God than by finding out if he loves saying the Hail Mary and the rosary...

It is the perfect compliment the most High God paid to Mary through His archangel in order to win her heart. So powerful was the effect of this greeting upon her, on account of its hidden delights, that despite her great humility, she gave her consent to the incarnation of the Word. If you say the Hail Mary properly, this compliment will infallibly earn you Mary's good will.

—ST. LOUIS DE MONTFORT

MARIA

The Festival of the Holy Name of Mary was instituted by Pope Innocent XI, in thanksgiving for the victory gained over the Turks in 1386, by which these infidels were compelled to abandon the siege of Vienna, leaving in the hands of the victorious Christians immense booty with their entire artillery.

On the Christian side the engagement was conducted by the gallant John Sobieski, King of Poland. On the morning of the battle, distinguished by his piety, as he was famous for his valour, he not only assisted at Mass but served it himself, with his arms stretched in the form of a cross all the time, except as he had to use them in ministering to the Priest, and, having gone to Holy Communion, he received the blessing of the Priest, who, at the same time, blessed the whole army, invoking the assistance of heaven for the encounter awaiting them. Having thus committed his cause to the Almighty Lord of Armies, he rose from his knees, and exclaiming aloud, he said, "Let us now march forward against the enemy with entire confidence in the protection of heaven, and under the assured patronage of the Blessed Virgin." Never was victory more complete. Far inferior in numbers he routed the enemy, who fled in the utmost disorder, leaving their camp with all that it possessed in the hands of the Christians.

We have enemies to fight against in the great warfare of salvation. These enemies, as the Apostle tells us, are not flesh and blood, but "Principalities and Powers, the rulers of the world of this darkness, the spirits of wickedness in the high places." (Ephes. vi. 12.) In other words, we have to fight our way to heaven against the devil and legions of evil spirits. Let us put ourselves under the protection of Mary, and fight courageously under the invocation of her sweet and venerable Name, and we are sure of victory.

"O name of Mary! Joy in the heart, honey in the mouth, melody to the ear of her devout clients!" —ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA

✠ SUNDAY AFTERNOON SPIRITUAL THOUGHTS (CONT'D.)

THE SALUTATION OF THE ROSARY IS WORTHY OF THE QUEEN OF HEAVEN

"The Holy Angels in Heaven salute the most Blessed Virgin with the Hail Mary — not audibly, but with their angelic intelligences. For they are fully aware that through it reparation was made for the Angels' sin, God was made man and the world was renewed" (Blessed Alan).

One night when a woman Confraternity member had retired, Our Lady appeared to her and said:

"My daughter, do not be afraid of me. I am your loving Mother whom you praise so faithfully every day. Be steadfast and persevere; I want you to know that the Angelic Salutation gives me so much joy that no man could ever really explain it."

(Guillaume Pepin, in Rosario aureo Sermon 47)

Saint Gertrude corroborated this in one of her visions; in her Revelations, Book IV, Chapter II, we find this story:

It was the morning of the feast of the Annunciation and the Hail Mary was of course being sung in Saint Gertrude's monastery. During the singing she had a vision in which three streams gushed forth from the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost and gently flowed into Mary's virginal heart. The minute they reached her heart they bounded back to the source from where they had come.

From this Saint Gertrude learned that the Blessed Trinity has allowed Our Lady to be most powerful next to God the Father, the wisest after God the Son, and the most loving after God the Holy Ghost. She also learned that every time the Angelic Salutation is said by the faithful the three mysterious streams surround Our Lady in a mighty, swirling current and rush into her heart. After they have completely bathed her in happiness they gush back into the bosom of Almighty God. The saints and angels share in this abundance of joy as do the faithful on earth, who say this prayer. For the Angelic Salutation is the source of all good for God's children.

This is what Our Lady herself said to Saint Gertrude:

"Never has any man composed anything more beautiful than the Hail Mary. No salutation could be dearer to my heart than those beautiful and dignified words that God the Father addressed to me Himself."

One day Our Lady said to Saint Mechtilde:

"All the Angelic Salutations that you have given me are blazoned on my cloak." (Then she held out a portion of her mantle.) "When this part of my cloak is full of Hail Marys I shall gather you up and take you into the Kingdom of my Beloved Son."

Denis the Carthusian, speaking of a vision of Our Lady to one of her clients, said:

"We should salute the most Blessed Virgin with our hearts, our lips, and our deeds, so that she will not be able to say to us:

"These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me."

In his first sermon on the Holy Rosary Clement Losoun says:

"After Saint Dominic had gone to heaven devotion to the Rosary waned until it was very near dead, when a terrible pestilence broke out in several parts of the country. The wretched people sought the advice of a saintly hermit who lived in the desert in great austerity. They besought him to intercede to Almighty God for them. So the hermit called upon the Mother of God, imploring her, as Advocate of Sinners, to come to their aid.

"Our Lady then appeared and said: 'These people have stopped singing my praises. This is why they have been visited with such a scourge. If they will only go back to the ancient devotion of the Most Holy Rosary, they will enjoy my protection. I shall see to their salvation if only they will sing the Rosary, for I love this type of chanting.'

"So the people did what Mary asked and made themselves rosaries, which they started saying with all their heart and soul."

DON'T GET YOUR HOPES UP ABOUT RATZINGER

By Most Rev. Donald J. Sanborn

(This week we begin a series with Bishop Sanborn's question and answer explanations of Pope Benedict XVI - Joseph Ratzinger.)

5. Q. What do you think that his program will be?

A. I think that he will push the ecumenical agenda very vigorously. His "reign" will be short, and for this reason I think he will move swiftly toward what he has called "reconciled diversity," a term which he has borrowed from Oscar Cullman, a Protestant minister. This means that he will strive to bring all religions together in some grand organization in which each one keeps its identity, but nevertheless considers itself to be in communion with everyone else. He will start with the schismatics and the Protestants. I would not be surprised if he makes some very bold moves in this direction. During Wojtyła's time, he elaborated all of the theology necessary for it.

6. Q. What theology are you referring to?

A. The "new ecclesiology."

7. Q. What is the new ecclesiology?

A. It is the teaching concerning the nature of the Church of Christ. The traditional ecclesiology is quite simple: the Church of Christ is the Roman Catholic Church, which is the unique means of salvation in the world. Any religion outside of the Roman Catholic Church, whether Greek Orthodox, Protestants, Jews, etc., despite whatever truths they may possess, or even valid sacraments, are false religions and are not means of salvation.

Obviously such an ecclesiology is incompatible with ecumenism. So already from the 1930's an ecumenical ecclesiology has been elaborated by the Modernists in which some value can be seen in non-Catholic religions. This new ecclesiology was incorporated into the teachings of Vatican II, and it is the vehicle of ecumenism.

In the early 1600s, Our Lord appeared several times to a very holy nun, Mother Mariana who was a victim soul for the people in the 20th and 21st Centuries. Our Lady of Good Success appeared to Mother Mariana often foretelling many future events that have come true. A daily meditation of 15 minutes to follow in the morning and evening was given to Mother Mariana by Jesus Himself. We too, should imitate Mother Mariana and begin a daily mediation. See the back of this newsletter for the mediations given to Mother Mariana by Our Lord.

The picture below illustrates perfectly how we should act towards God, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and all the Saints:
