¶ SPECIAL DATE MASSES

Please limit yourself to generally one special request Mass a month. Since the Revolution, we have been inundated with Mass stipends. This is a good thing, and I have not turned anyone away, especially because one of these days there will be a crash and life will change. Still, this means a long wait, and we must take our turn. I try to be fair in assigning the Mass stipends, as well as to accommodate your needs. God sees your intention. In eternity, there is no time. But here below it may seem an eternity until your Mass is offered! You might consolidate intentions sometimes. Since each Mass is of infinite value, it does stretch. Only the Privileged Altar Masses are limited to one soul at a time, as are the Gregorian Masses.

—Bp. Dolan

OUR LADY OF FATIMA

Progress is the watchword of our modern day. Progress should be likewise the watchword of our spiritual advancement: progress in making use of the means of salvation that God has given us for these perilous times. Our families are plagued with opportunities for sin, which are innumerable and divisive. Dangers, which are so incredibly menacing, attractive and enticing, surround us on every side. We cannot overcome them by our own power. Without God's help, we will drown in the mire. Witchcraft and Satanism abound!

Our Lady of Fatima came to bring peace to the world. The foundation of peace is the possession of grace. Man must cease offending God. Sanctifying Grace is the Life of God Himself imparted to the soul, whereby man is raised to a supernatural level and becomes a friend and child of God, and an heir to Heaven. The presence or absence of Sanctifying Grace in our souls, at the moment of death, will decide our eternal salvation or damnation.

Misled by false teachers, many have given up the Faith, love, and hope of Christ. We must turn back to God by Whom we are loved so very much. When man restores God to the temple of his soul, Mary will reward the world with a lasting peace.

Through the Sacrament of Confession, all is gained and saved, and the repentant sinner is restored to the friendship of God. Washed in the Precious Blood of the Lamb of God, he receives the source of life, the medicine of salvation, the fount of healing and the beginning of all that is good. There is no more effectual means of preservation from the dangers and temptations which beset our families, than frequent union with Our Lord in Holy Communion.

ROSARY CONFRATERNITY

Rosary Confraternity Enrollments will be Sunday, October 17, after the High Mass. Please let the office know if you are interested in joining and have not given your name and information at the breakfast.

As a requirement of membership, each member of the Confraternity promises to pray fifteen decades of the Rosary each week and to include the other members of the Confraternity in their intentions. This is the sole obligation of membership in the Rosary Confraternity. It does not bind under pain of sin.

The Bishop is asking for a one-time fee of $25. You will receive your pin to wear and a rosary.

We have not asked dues for the last several years. Please help us defray the cost of providing Masses for deceased members. If you would like to donate to the Confraternity with a monetary donation or your time, we would readily accept both. The Confraternity was very active many years ago. Church and religious field trips were organized and popular. If you want to be involved please let us know. You may email sggbookstore@gmail.com for a start.

¶ UPCOMING EVENTS

Induction into the Rosary Confraternity: Sunday, October 17.

Forty Hours, October 22-24. Opening services begin on Friday evening and will be followed by the Chili Supper. Adoration continues on Saturday, and the Devotion closes on Sunday evening with the Procession and Benediction.

All Saints Sunday, October 31. Prepare a costume and presentation about a saint with your child for the All Saints' Party after the High Mass!

¶ YOUR PRAYERS

Please pray for Jane Brockman, Anny Reilly, Steven & Carol Niehaus.

"There is no greater hell than to be a prisoner of fear." - Ben Jonson, English playwright and poet. Born: 1572.

OCTOBER

(Month of the Most Holy Rosary)

Hearken! to this glad refrain:
"Rosary month is here again."
Gathered 'round Our Mother's shrine,
Far and near, in varied clime
Young and old, this prayer repeat,
Finding in it solace sweet.

Fifteen Mysteries are retold,
Beads in hand:
Blossomed buds
White, red and gold,
In the prayer that ne'er grows old.

Joyful:
Humility's garden of delight,
The rose in white.

Sorrowful:
Thorned the stem
Whose Blood was shed,
Offer we our roses red.

Glorious:
As each decade doth unfold
Alchemy's love, the rose is gold.

DR. JESUS

I thank You Dr. Jesus in heaven
For You have made me whole;
You washed me in Your Precious
Blood
And cleansed my sinful soul:

And now I lift my heart
To the heavens up above;
Now I know forever more
That You, Dr. Jesus, are love.

- Joseph Dismas Murphy

"Someone who shows no clemency, who is not clothed with the heart of mercy and tears, no matter what sort of student he is in spirituality, such a one does not fulfill the law of Christ."

- St. Jerome

The glow of a most successful Rosary Sunday (thank you! Our Lady of the Rosary and the Confraternity) had not yet faded when our new bishop, Dom Rodrigo da Silva, returned on Tuesday to a busy schedule in Brazil. He was certainly well treated at the airport. These little graces are the more touching as they are, nowadays, quite unexpected. The United agent spoke Portuguese, sent his luggage directly to Brazil, and gave Rev. Mr. Simpson a rare Gate Pass to accompany His Excellency until he boarded his flight. A TSA agent greeted the bishop respectfully and said everybody knew about the Consecration! His Excellency is having an "All Brazil" conference this weekend, Confirmations, Minor Orders, and a Pontifical Mass to honor the "Aparacida," the national Patroness, on Tuesday. Fr. Romero leaves to help out Fr. Ercoli in Seattle, and Fr. Angelo Mello, a former Resistance priest, joins St. Joseph's Seminary for his own studies, and to help the missions.

Jim Soli is back from the hospital and even made it to his Friday 8 AM Mass. Joe Andreotta was suddenly taken from us on Wednesday afternoon. We will miss a good faithful man, a friend, and a loyal usher. His death, while so sudden, was well provided spiritually. Fr. Lehtoranta rushed to the hospital before Joe was moved downtown, and anointed him. By the 5 o'clock Mass he was with God, and we were praying for him at a Requiem Mass. His funeral is Tuesday. These good men are irreplaceable, but we will need some men now to help with the ushering.

Speaking of help, the seminarians are kept busy with hours of class, prayers and duties. Could you sign up to bring a meal sometimes, especially Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday? To "feed the hungry," remember, is to feed Our Lord Himself.

Tomorrow's holiday should not go unobserved, because the Race Communists are trying to cancel Columbus. It is also the feast of Our Lady's Maternity. Please continue faithfully to pray with us five decades daily, as noted, for the defeat of the One World Revolution, and the restoration of our liberties.

Mark Wednesday on your calendar for the final Fatima Rosary Procession for Peace, by candlelight in West Chester at 7:15 PM. My modest goal is one hundred and four souls, but I wouldn't mind two... Know and employ the wonderful weapon which is the Rosary.

Next Sunday we're receiving new members into the Rosary Confraternity after the 9 AM Mass. Indulgences are many, and you "only have to" say three Rosaries over the week, though we all say one each day...so you're covered.

Today's St. Francis Borgia was a Spanish Grandee, a great powerful oligarch who became the most humble

Jesuit. His last work was to tramp all over Europe, cobbling together a delicate diplomatic alliance to fight off the invading Moslems at Lepanto. It worked. Hell trembles at humility, and Heaven cannot resist its sweet fragrance. Even as we battle, for fight we must, remember this secret weapon.

The angels accompany you home today, and stay with you all week!

– Bishop Dolan

HONORING THE ARCHANGELS

The angels show forth God's greatness and perfection. "Each symbolizes individually some attribute or other of that infinite Being. In some we see His power, in others His love, in others His strength. Each is a reproduction of some beauty of the divine Original; each adores Him and glorifies Him in the perfection it portrays." It is God, then, Whom we honor in the angels. They are like mirrors reflecting the perfections of their infinite Creator. Raised to the supernatural order, they share in the life of God; and victorious in trial, they enjoy the beatific vision: "Their angels in heaven always see the Face of My Father Who is in heaven."

If we consider their relations with Jesus Christ, it may not appear absolutely certain that they hold their grace from Him; but this much does appear with certainty, that in heaven they unite themselves with Him, the Mediator of all religion, in order to adore, praise and glorify the majesty of the Most High. It is their bliss to add in this wise a greater worth to their worship: "Through whom the angels praise, the dominations adore and the powers hold in awe Thy majesty." Hence, when we unite ourselves to Jesus Christ to adore God we join at the same time with the angels and saints in a heavenly harmony which renders the praise of the Godhead still more perfect. We can well make our own words of Father Olier: "May all the angelic host, the mighty powers that move the spheres of heaven, forever pour forth in Jesus Christ whatever be wanting to our song of praise. May they forever thank Thee, Lord, for all those gifts both of nature and of grace which from the goodness of Thy hand we all receive."

 VALETE JANITORES (Farewell Door Keepers)

Eternal Father, since Thou hast given me for my inheritance the Adorable Face of Thy Divine Son, I offer that Face to Thee and I beg Thee, in exchange for this coin of infinite value, to forget the ingratitude of souls dedicated to Thee and to pardon all poor sinners.

– St. Therese of Lisieux

CATECHISM CORNER: NECESSITY OF FAITH.

Faith is absolutely necessary for salvation: “Without faith it is impossible to please God” (Heb. 11:6); “He that believeth not shall be condemned” (Mark 16:16).

Suppose a person who is ignorant of his religion were dying, and you had only a few minutes to instruct him; how many truths would he be obliged to accept by faith before he could hope to save his soul? These four:

1. There is but one God, Creator of earth and heaven.
2. In God there are three Divine Persons: God, the Father; God, the Son; God, the Holy Ghost.
3. The Second Person became Man and died for us.
4. God rewards the good with heaven, and punishes the wicked in hell.

The fact that such a man would be asked to make an act of faith in four truths does not mean that the other truths of our religion are unimportant. These four truths contain implicitly all the other truths and in danger of death faith in them suffices. We ourselves should make frequent acts of faith in these four truths by reciting often the Act of Faith which contains all four.

LIBERA NOS A MALO

Considerations on the Great Reset and the New World Order

*No one will be part of the New World Order unless he carries out an act of worship to Lucifer.
No one will enter the New Age unless he receives Luciferian initiation.*

David Spangler

Director of the United Nations Planetary Initiative Project
(Reflections on The Christ, Findhorn, 1978)

Alice A. Bailey writes about the New Age:

The achievements of science, the conquests of nations and the conquests of territory are all indicative of the method of the Age of Pisces [the age of Christ], with its idealism, its militancy, and its separativity in all fields—religious, political, and economic. But the age of synthesis, of inclusivity, and understanding is upon us, and the new education of the Age of Aquarius [the age of the Antichrist] must very delicately begin to penetrate the human aura.

Today we see how the teaching methods theorized by Muller in the World Core Curriculum have been adopted by almost all nations, including LGBT ideology, gender theory, and all other forms of indoctrination. This is confirmed by the former director of the WHO, Dr. Brock Chisolm, explaining what the UN educational policy would like to achieve:

In order to achieve a world government, it is necessary to remove from the minds of men their individualism, fidelity to family traditions, national patriotism, and religious dogmas (cf. Christian World Report, Marzo 1991, Vol. 3).

Behold once again the fil rouge that links not only Klaus Schwab to Hélder Câmara, but also Robert Muller and Alice A. Bailey to Pierre Theilard de Chardin and Emmanuel Saguez de Breuverly, always in a globalist key and under the ill-omened inspiration of Luciferian thought. An in-depth analysis of these disturbing aspects will make it possible to shed light on the truth and reveal the complicity and betrayals of not a few churchmen who are enslaved to the enemy.

Our response to the crisis of authority

The corruption of authority is such that it is very difficult—at least in human terms—to hypothesize a peaceful way out. In the course of history, totalitarian regimes have been overthrown by force. It is difficult to think that the health dictatorship that has been established in recent months can be fought differently, since all the powers of the State, all of the means of information, all the international public and private institutions, all of the economic and financial potentates are complicit in this crime.

Faced with this bleak scenario of corruption and conflict of interest, it is indispensable that all those who are not subservient to the globalist plan unite in a compact and cohesive front, in order to defend their natural and religious rights, their own health and that of their loved ones, their freedom, and their goods. Where authority fails in its duties and indeed betrays the purpose for which it has been established, disobedience is not only lawful but obligatory: non-violent disobedience, at least for now, but determined and courageous. Disobedience to the illegitimate and tyrannical diktats of ecclesiastical authority, wherever it shows itself to be an accomplice of the infernal plan of the New World Order.

Conclusion

Allow me to conclude this reflection with a brief spiritual thought. Everything that we know, discover, and understand about the global conspiracy currently unfolding shows us a tremendous reality that is also at the same time sharp and clearly-defined: there are two sides, the side of God and the side of Satan, the side of the children of Light and the side of the children of darkness. It is not possible to come to terms with the Enemy, nor is it possible to serve two masters (Mt 6:24). The words of Our Lord must be engraved in our minds: “Whoever is not with Me is against Me, and whoever does not gather with Me scatters” (Mt 12:30). Hoping to build a world government in which the Divine Kingship of Jesus Christ is outlawed is insane and blasphemous, and no one who has such a plan will ever succeed. Where Christ reigns, peace, harmony and justice reign; where Christ does not reign, Satan is a tyrant. Let us consider this well, whenever we have to choose whether to make agreements with the adversary in the name of a false peaceful coexistence! And let those prelates and civil leaders who think that their complicity only affects economic or health issues, pretending not to know what is behind all this, also consider this well.

Let us turn to Christ, Christ who is the King of hearts, of families, of societies, and of nations. Let us proclaim Him as Our King and Mary Most Holy as Our Queen. Only in this way can the wicked project of the New World Order be defeated. Only in this way can the Holy Church be purified of traitors and renegades. And may God listen to our prayer.
