The Epiphany of Our Lord

THURSDAY, JANUARY 6TH

ORDINATIONS TO THE DIACONATE: 10:00 AM

Our Appreciation Dinner follows in Helfta Hall. All are invited.

The word "merry" is from an Anglo-Saxon word which means valiant, illustrious, or gallant.

Thus, to be merry is not merely to be mirthful but to be mighty.

So, when we say "Merry Christmas," we are really exhorting one another to take heart and to stand fast!

Merry Christmas!

DEVOTION TO THE INFANT JESUS OF PRAGUE

(Feast Day January 2nd)

Devotion to the Infant Jesus of Prague is devotion to the Child Jesus. It is veneration of the Son of God, Who in the form of an infant chose a stable for a palace, a manger for a cradle and shepherds for worshippers. Our Savior grants special graces to all who venerate His Sacred Infancy. The image of the Child Jesus known as the "Infant Jesus of Prague" was in reality of Spanish origin. In the 17th century, this beautiful statue was brought to Bohemia by a Spanish princess whose mother had given it to her... She presented her beloved statue to the Carmelite religious with these prophetic words: "I hereby give you what I prize most highly in this world. As long as you venerate this image, you will not be in want." Her prediction was verified. As long as the Divine Infant was venerated, God showed Himself as a kind helper through His Son, and the community prospered both spiritually and temporarily. But when the devotion to the Infant was relaxed, God's blessing seemed to depart from the house.

...[The statue] is of wax and is about nineteen inches high. It is clothed in a royal mantle and has a beautiful jeweled crown on its head. Its right hand is raised in blessing; its left holds a globe, signifying sovereignty. So many graces have been received by those who invoke the Divine Child before the original statue that it has been called "the Miraculous Infant Jesus of Prague." We read the following in an old book printed in Kempt: "All who approach the miraculous statue and pray there with confidence receive assistance in danger, consolation in sorrows, aid in poverty, comfort in anxiety, light in spiritual darkness, streams of grace in dryness of soul, health in sickness and hope in despair."

...What is said of the original statue may be applied also to the images of the "Little King" which are venerated the world over. From small beginnings, this devotion has grown to great proportions. The Divine Child attracts an ever-increasing number of clients, who appeal to Him in every need.

The Novena began on Friday evening and continues for eight more weeks.

FOR THE INFANT OF PRAGUE ON HIS FEAST DAY

In thanksgiving for the time that has been,
in hope for the time that is to come,
let us pray through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God:
We praise Thee, O Lord, and we bless Thee.

OLD AND NEW

Goodbye, old year! Hie you away, and bear
Upon your creaky shoulders my full pack
Of sin—black, gnarly, boughs with scarce a seed
To scatter when God's fruitful warmth comes back.

Yet Spring breathes in the wind, and I shall plant
With resolute planning, here and there, some seeds,
And hope that when this laughing child departs,
I may be-wreath him with sweet blossoming deeds.

— Francis Caldwell

A NEW YEAR'S PRAYER

A gift, O little uncrowned King,
I ask for one held dear:
It is Thy Mother's love and Thine
To bless the opening year!

A THOUGHT

The golden day and the silver night—
Twenty-four jewels, pure and bright,
To set in our life-chain, every one.
How many are lost when the day is done?

— Hope Willis

✠ THE BISHOP'S CORNER ✠

These days have been dark since the Winter Solstice, heavy with rain, and the cheering sun not to be seen. Still, the celebrations continue unabated, for Christ Our Savior is born. Even a funeral, especially a funeral must have its meal, and it was a fine one on the 16th for the funeral of Kyle McGuire. Thank you! Busy week. The decorations that Saturday went up well with the experienced hands of veterans at work, as well as newcomers arrived to share the effort...and the joy of a palace worthy of Our King.

Our next meal was the Midnight Supper refreshment after the long and so beautiful night watch of Matins and Carols and Pontifical Mass. Monday assembled a good representation of dedicated party people for the blessing of beverages and the Health of St. John. Tuesday brought out the little ones for yet another blessing and party. Excellent attendance, and stellar behavior for the poetry and the afternoon's feature, Grimm's Dear Milli. The teens were there too, reviving the card club. Somebody wanted to start up an adult card circle, maybe with pinochle. Anyone interested?

In the meantime, Fr. McKenna and I have been nursing Fr. McGuire. A lot of 'flu this winter, as is often the case. We're praying he's on the mend. Praying...yes, that continues. High Masses and Low, devotions and novenas gather together all of your, our petitions and prayers.

Please remember our seminarians in your prayers. They're making another six-day retreat, as the Church prescribes, in preparation for receiving the Diaconate this Thursday, Epiphany. Come to the ordination at the 10:00 AM Mass: another historical and very happy event on the Feast of the Kings. Afterwards there's a dinner in their honor and yours, as we thank all of our benefactors, volunteers, and church workers. Should be a beautiful day.

This is the second day of our new year, and I wish you a blessed one! First Friday falls this week, and the many intentions we bear call us to the Adoration, and the Reparation which we must offer to the Sacred Heart. This kind of prayer, this spiritual nourishment guarantees that this new year will be an excellent one.

With a blessing for all who read these words,

Bishop Dolan

P.S. Fr. McKenna took our ailing priest over to Accudoc Urgent Care in Indiana, but there's one in Ohio, too. He could not praise it enough, an excellent experience in every way. Kindly passed on by other Traditional Catholics, I'm sharing this same information with you. There's no reason you have to be demeaned or insulted when you seek medical care. Thanks be to God! And thanks for your prayers for Fr. McGuire and all of our sick.

EPIPHANY THOUGHTS

“To offer gold is to proclaim Christ's kingship, to offer incense is to adore His Godhead, and to offer myrrh is to acknowledge His mortality” (St. Odilo of Cluny). Creation responds as well: “When the King of Heaven was born, the heavens knew that He was God because they immediately sent forth a star, the sea knew Him because it allowed Him to walk upon it; the earth knew Him because it trembled when He died; the sun knew Him because it hid the rays of its light” (St. Gregory the Great). The manifestation of the Son of God to the world begs belief from us by which we will be led home by another way.

OUT OF BOUNDS

A Little Boy of heavenly birth,
But far from home to-day,
Comes down to find His ball, the Earth,
That Sin has cast away.
O comrades, let us one and all
Join in to get Him back His ball!

—J.B. Tabb

This is your reminder that if you still have not caved to the powers that be, you've just survived the greatest psyop in human history, a plan that has been in the works for decades.

Do you realize how much time, resources, money and effort they put into this? They studied every possible way to manipulate, brainwash and coerce you. They tried to demoralize you by corrupting society from every possible corner. They tried to vilify you, desensitize you, scare you, guilt you and shame you. They tried to lure you with money, gifts and rewards. They tried to confuse you and make you question your reality and even your sanity at times. They tried to get you to abandon your own principles, values, morals and ethics. They even turned those close to you against you.

Almost everyone fell for it. But not you. So just sit back for a moment and realize how much you've weathered over these past 20 months. Yet you never gave in! You stood your ground against all odds. And not only did you not drop to your knees, you rose like a phoenix in the night and stepped fully and completely into your power. Well done.

KIND WORDS

Kind words produce happiness. ...No analysis enables us to detect the secret of the power of kind words. ...Now, as I have said before, happiness is a great power of holiness. Thus, kind words, by their power of producing holiness, and so of winning men to God. ...Words have a power of their own both for good and evil...it is by voice and words that men mesmerize each other. Hence it is that the world is converted by the foolishness of preaching. Hence it is that an angry word rankles longer in the heart than an angry gesture, nay, very often even longer than a blow. Thus all that has been said of the power of kindness in general applies with an additional and peculiar force to kind words. They prepare men for conversion. They convert them. They sanctify them. They procure entrance for wholesome counsels into their souls. They blunt temptations. They dissolve the dangerous clouds of gloom and sadness. They are beforehand with evil. They exorcise the devil. Sometimes the conversions they work are gradual and take time. But more often they are sudden, more often they are like instantaneous revelations from heaven, not only unraveling complicated misunderstandings and softening the hardened convictions of years, but giving a divine vocation to the soul. Truly it would be worth going through fire and water to acquire the right and to find the opportunity of saying kind words!

THE HOLY NAME OF JESUS

There is no “other name under Heaven given to men by which we are to be saved” (Acts 4:12). This feast day provides us the chance to live with special attentiveness before the Holy Name. “If you think the name ‘Jesus’ continually, it purges your sin and kindles your heart; it clarifies your soul, it removes anger and does away with slowness. It wounds in love and fulfills charity. It chases the devil and puts out dread. It opens Heaven, and makes you a contemplative. It puts all vices and phantoms out from the lover.”

– Richard Rolle

Stars of Cheer

*The silent Christmas stars shine cool and clear
Above a world of mingled joy
and woe;
On peaceful cottage homes,
with thanks aglow
For royal bounty of the grape-
crowned year;
And on red fields of blood,
where many a tear
Is wiped away by Death, a
gentle foe,
More merciful than they who
bade it flow.
Shine, silver stars, rain down
your blessed cheer!*

*Comfort the mourner with your Angel song!
The Christ-Child reigns.
Behold His tiny hand
Upraised in benediction
warm and sweet!
O'er every joy and every bitter
wrong
The Babe of Bethlehem hath
supreme command;
Come, worship, kings and peoples, at His feet!

Most dear Lord Jesus Christ, Who, being an infant for us, wast willing to be born in a cave, to free us from the darkness of sin, to draw us to Thyself, and to inflame us with Thy holy love; we adore Thee as our Creator and Redeemer, we accept and choose Thee for our King and Lord, and for tribute we offer Thee all the affections of our poor hearts.

Dear Jesus, our Lord and God, deign to accept this offering, and that it may be worthy of Thine acceptance, pardon us our faults, enlighten us, and inflame us with that holy fire which Thou camest to bring into the world and enkindle in men's hearts. May our souls become a perpetual sacrifice in Thy honor. Grant that we may ever seek Thy greater glory here on earth, so that we may one day come to rejoice in Thy infinite loveliness in Heaven. Amen.
